Federal and State investment are essential

California’s long-standing housing crisis demands a comprehensive and sustainable plan to increase the supply of housing affordable to families struggling to get by. Increasing the supply of housing will not only stabilize families, it will create jobs and make California competitive again.

Transforming Lives in Assembly District 22

Since 1986, affordable-home developers in your district have worked through public-private partnerships and:

- Created 3,283 construction jobs
- Created 897 permanent jobs
- Built 2,039 affordable homes/apartments
- Generated $63.3 million in annual economic activity

Lifting families out of poverty.

Close the Gap

Developers have to pull together a complicated array of public and private funding sources to build affordable apartments. But, massive state and federal disinvestment in housing has left a huge and growing gap, making affordable home development less feasible.

The Housing Affordability Crisis is Solvable

Lives have already been positively changed in your district by affordable developments. Everyone talks about California’s high cost of housing—this is the moment leaders like you can support bold solutions to do something about it.

Use your legislative power to invest significant state investment in housing to lift more of your constituents out of poverty and create a meaningful legacy you can be proud of.
